PERSONAL MENTION

Charles Hoskins is up from Echo spending the day.

Carl A. Gilbert, prominent Echo business man, was here yesterday. O. W. Orton of Hollis was in the city yesterday. He was registered at the St. George.

James Brown, undertaker for J. T. Brown, is taking his vacation at Hida-way Springs.

Frank L. McNeil, proprietor of Lehman Springs, came down today from that resort.

George Hooker, florist, returned at noon from the mountains where he had been hunting grouse.

G. W. Cotts, local attorney, spent yesterday on Weston Mountain and reports good grouse shooting.

John E. Montgomery and Will Moore, local grain buyers, spent yesterday in Walla Walla, making the round trip by auto.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Browning, C. C. Browning and Miss Marie Browning of Enterprise were registered at the Hotel Pendleton yesterday.

B. Parlett, local agent of the American Express, and Mrs. Siegel, and Deputy Sheriff A. C. Funk returned last evening from Bingham Springs.

Dr. M. S. Kern and Fred W. Lampkin returned this morning from Weston Mountain where they hunted grouse. They had fair success.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles V. Grunwell, Mr. and Mrs. John Grunwell and Miss M. L. Grunwell, all of Danville, Wn., were in the city yesterday.

Earl Kirkpatrick took a party of hunters up the south fork of McKay creek early yesterday morning and they had the limit by eight o'clock.

WOMAN CHARGES THAT OGILVY ACTED ALONE

straight at her, the bullets whizzing so close to her head that she could feel the air vibrations. "The two of them then galloped on toward their place," she said, "but when about a quarter of a mile away they reined up and looked back. I think they thought the bullet had struck me. When they looked back I was standing near the house in full view and Ogilvy fired another shot, the bullet whizzing high over my head."

Mrs. Dale does not attribute young Ogilvy's hatred for her to the murder of his parents, for which crime her husband is now in jail and she does not think any of the Ogilvy family except Walter and Elsie entertain any ill feeling toward her.

"Walter wants my land," she said this morning, "and is trying to get it one way or another. He has been drinking hard and is dangerous. Mrs. Dale states that young Ogilvy has not worked for Charlie Johnson for a year or more and now cherishes a bitter enmity toward his former employer. "Mr. Johnson has certainly not been trying to get my land away from me," she said, "and has never treated me otherwise than kindly. In fact part of my stock is on his range now."

Panama Canal Reopened.
PANAMA, Aug. 14.—The Panama Canal was reopened permitting the passage of ten ships, including the steamer Finland, with many passengers on board.

Altogether 20 ships have been delayed on account of the slide which blocked the Gaillard cut last Saturday.

Norwegian Steamer Sunk.
LONDON, Aug. 14.—The Norwegian steamer Abba, was sunk. The crew was saved.

Reports of Fires Wrong.
MARSHFIELD, Ore., Aug. 14.—There were several reports of fires in the logging sections, but A. H. Powers, head of the Smith-Powers Logging company, said there were no fires except those set by his forces or men who are kept at work constantly during the summer clearing brush and debris left after operations.

Only one forest fire has been reported to the Coos county fire patrol association. W. P. Conrad, secretary of the patrol, ordered men into the mountain district where there was a considerable fire in the forest reserve southeast of Eckley. Late reports say the fire will not do great damage.

Dante's Castle Destroyed.
ROME, Aug. 11.—Austrian artillery men have "wantonly destroyed" the historic castle of Lizzana, near Rovereto, where the poet Dante passed his exile, according to the Idea Nazionale.

OUTLAW LOCKS UP SHERIFF AND MAKES HIS GET-AWAY

GRANTS PASS, Ore., Aug. 14.—John Austin Hooper, college graduate and king of highwaymen, aided by a fellow prisoner, who says that Hooper forced his assistance, made a daring escape from the Josephine county jail.

The highwayman, who was in jail here awaiting trial since his capture at The Dalles July 19, for the robbery of the Southern Pacific station here three months ago, overpowered Sheriff Smith, disarmed him, locked him in a cell and fled with Joe Collinge, the fellow prisoner who aided him. Collinge has been recaptured, but nothing has been seen of Hooper since he left the outskirts of Grants Pass.

Hooper Commanders Hussy.
The two prisoners separated as soon as they left the jail. Hooper starting for the hills north of Grants Pass and Collinge going toward the railroad tracks. Within two blocks of the jail Hooper overtook Sam Ellis, driving along in a buggy and stopped him with the information that there had been a serious accident up the street a few blocks.

Mr. Ellis drove north with Hooper at top speed toward the scene of the supposed accident when Hooper drew his revolver and commanded Ellis to keep going, threatening to kill him at the first show of trickery. At the outskirts of the town Hooper got out of the buggy and told Ellis to drive back. Nothing has been seen of Hooper since.

Grieved Oil King Lonely.
CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 14.—There is a changed master at Forest Hill, the big East Cleveland estate of John D. Rockefeller. That is what Rockefeller's closest friends were saying after visits to Forest Hill.

The oldest inhabitant who has cared for the lawns and drives of Forest Hill for years knows why their master has changed. It is because their mistress has gone, they say. For the first time Mr. Rockefeller tramps and drives about his estate without the companionship of his wife.

The attendants tell, too, how the changed master broke down and cried at his first breakfast at Forest Hill after his return because of the vacant chair. Rockefeller used to play golf with keen delight. He plays seldom now, and without the old-time zeal.

AUSTRIAN VIEW IS REJECTED.

"Department of State, Washington, D. C., Aug. 12, 1915.—The Secretary of State to Ambassador Penfield: Please present a note to the royal foreign office, in reply to its note of June 25, in the following sense:

"The government of the United States has given careful consideration to the statement of the imperial and royal government in regard to the exportation of arms and ammunition from the United States to the countries at war with Austria-Hungary and Germany. The government of the United States notes with satisfaction the recognition by the imperial and royal government of the undoubted fact that its attitude with regard to the exportation of arms and ammunition from the United States is prompted by its intention to maintain the strictest neutrality and to conform to the letter of the provisions of international treaties; but is surprised to find the imperial and royal government implying that the observance of the strict principles which have developed in the present war is insufficient, and asserting that this government should go beyond the long-recognized rules governing such traffic by neutrals and adopt measures to maintain an attitude of strict party with respect to both belligerent parties."

View Is Not Accepted.
"To this assertion of an obligation to change or modify the rules of international usage on account of special conditions, the government of the United States cannot accede. The recognition of an obligation of this sort, unknown to the international practice of the past, would impose on every neutral nation a duty to sit in judgment on the progress of war and to restrict its commercial intercourse with a belligerent whose naval successes prevented the neutral from trade with the enemy. The continuation of the imperial and royal government appears to be that the advantages gained to a belligerent by its superiority on the sea, should be equalized by the neutral powers by the establishment of a system of non-intercourse with the victor. The imperial and royal government confines its comments to arms and ammunition, but, if the principle for which it contends is sound, it should apply with equal force to all articles of contraband."

America Would Need Supplies.
"In consequence of this standing policy, the United States in event of an attack by a foreign power, would be at the outset of a war, seriously, if not fatally, embarrassed by the lack of arms and ammunition and by the means to produce them in sufficient quantities to supply the requirements of national defense. The United States has always depended on the right and power to purchase arms and ammunition from neutral nations in case of foreign attack. This right which it claims for itself, it cannot deny to others."

"A nation whose principle and policy it is to rely upon international obligations and international justice to preserve its political and territorial integrity might become the prey of an aggressive nation whose policy and practice it is to increase its military strength during times of peace with the design of conquest, unless the nation attacked can, after war had been declared, go into the markets of the world and purchase the means to defend itself against the aggressor."

Canal Soon To Be Clear.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—Half a mile of earth which slid into the Panama Canal reducing the depth through Gaillard cut to 19 feet, will have been dredged away with the next three days, canal officials reported. Ten steamers are awaiting passage through the cut.

The slide has been slowly progressing for months, but did not gain on the dredgers until last Saturday.

Man Giving Drink Fined.
VANCOUVER, Wash., Aug. 14.—The pleasure of treating friends from his flask of whiskey at Battle Ground at a dance, cost S. C. Baker, who resides near Yale, $36.40 before Justice of the Peace Deror in this city.

Mr. Baker bought the liquor at Yacolt a wet unit, went to Battle Ground, a dry unit, to attend the dance, and in a spirit of goodfellowship "passed" his bottle. Today Mr. Baker said he did not know it is against the law to give away whisky in a dry town.

Grain Yield Is Heavy.
DAVENPORT, Wash., Aug. 14.—Wheat yields in Lincoln county, taken at random from 15 large ranches, show spring grain to averaging 26 bushels to the acre and winter grain to run 37 bushels to the acre, increases of about 25 and 30 per cent, respectively, over any former year.

Barley appears to be averaging well above 50 bushels to the acre, while oats are running better than 60 bushels.

If these yields continue Lincoln county is assured of 10,000,000 bushels of grain. Plenty of help is present for the harvest.

Austria Has Earthquake.
AMSTERDAM, via London, Aug. 14.—A dispatch to the Frankfurter Zeitung from Laibach, Austria, under date of August 11, says that extraordinarily severe earth shocks, the strongest of any recorded since the establishment of observatory there, were registered at frequent intervals. The most violent shock occurred at 10:14 a. m. Information concerning the main zone of disturbances is lacking, but the secondary zone embraces all of southern Italy, where undulatory shocks occurred.
